Project Narrative

Nature of Problem*

What is the nature of the problem and need for the proposed project?

Note: 6000 character limit.

Project Impact and National Objective Compliance*

What impact will the proposed project have on the problem? How will the project benefit low- and moderate-income people? How many households (for Housing subcategory) or individuals (for Public Facilities subcategory) will benefit from this project or program?

Note: 9000 character limit.

Project Implementation*

How will the proposed project be implemented? If this is a program, how will it be implemented? If applicable, explain the role of the nonprofit entity.

Note: 6000 character limit.

Project Readiness*

Is the project ready to be implemented? Please explain what efforts toward implementation have been made on the proposed project, as well as any actions that would increase the project's impact or which would quickly move the project forward once the grant is approved. See Cdfa 310.12 (j) or (n) for additional details. Include attachments in the attachments section.

Note: 6000 character limit.

Financial*

Explain the need for CDBG funding. Have other sources of funding been investigated?

Note: 9000 character limit.

Long Term Benefit to Low- and Moderate-Income Persons*

The applicant must describe how a majority of the funds for the proposed project will have a long term benefit (20 years), primarily to low- and moderate-income persons (or households) if the study were to be implemented. Supporting documentation must be included as applicable; see threshold attachments -numbers 16 through 19. Some projects by their very nature are considered to provide long term benefit to low- and moderate-income persons (i.e. replacement of water or sewer lines serving an LMI neighborhood or handicapped access projects). In these instances, the certification to operate and maintain these public facilities shall serve to meet the requirements of this narrative.

Note: 6000 character limit.
