

COVID-19 RESPONSE

Quickly adapted to the evolving needs of New Hampshire communities as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. CDFA's crisis response includes:

- Launching the NH Nonprofit Response Fund to rapidly deploy resources to community-based organizations impacted by the crisis and those serving vulnerable populations. Shortly after launching in April, CDFA raised nearly $400,000 in Tax Credit donations from business donors to support the fund.
- Providing flexibility for existing grantees and borrowers.
- Shifting existing resources to meet immediate needs and plans for rebuilding.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Tax Credit Program

- Held educational workshops and engaged 87 nonprofits interested in program.
- Provided robust technical assistance to potential applicants.
- Received applications in March and began intensive application evaluations.

Community Development Block Grant Program

- Received nine Housing and Public Facilities applications for infrastructure improvements, crisis center and food pantry upgrades, and affordable housing projects.
- Received Microenterprise applications to support six organizations in delivering technical assistance to businesses with five or fewer employees.

ORGANIZATIONAL INITIATIVES

- Launched newly designed website to provide more streamlined information on how nonprofits, municipalities and businesses can engage with CDFA.
- Developed new resource hub (<https://resources.nhcdfa.org/>) to provide improved access to program-related information and resources for partners. The easy-to-navigate online platform guides visitors through the pre-application, application and implementation phases of CDFA's programs.
- These new tools will help CDFA deliver enhanced technical assistance and support to partners.
